

MAN OF CONSTANT SORROW (TRADITIONAL, PRIOR TO 1913)

(Peter, Paul & Mary arrangement)

Intro: A D

A D Bm Em
I am a man of constant sorrow; I've seen troubles all my days

A D Bm Em
I'm goin' back to Cali-for-nia, * place where I was partly raised

A D
All through this world I'm bound to ramble

Bm Em
Through storm and wind, through sleet and rain

A D Bm Em
I'm bound to ride that northern railroad; Perhaps I'll take the very next train.

A D Bm Em
Your friends, they say I am a stranger; You'll never see my face no more

A D Bm Em
There is just one promise that's given; We'll sail on God's golden shore

A D Bm Em
I am a man of constant sorrow; I've seen troubles all my days

A D Bm Em
I'm goin' back to Cali-for-nia, * Place where I was partly raised

* Location is commonly changed to wherever this song is performed
